SIGNALLING.

IMPERIAL SERVICE TROOPS.

1. It is proposed to hold two signalling classes for Imperial Service Troops next cold weather, one at Gwalior, the other at Patiala.

It is suggested that the signallers of the following States should attend classes as below :—

GWALIOR CLASS.

Division I.		Division II.	Non-Commissioned Officers and men.
Gwalior	5	Regiments	135
Bhopal	1	„	27
Hyderabad	2	„	54
Mysore	1	„	27
Alwar	2	„	54
Bharatpur	1	„	27
Jodhpur	1	„ 1 Unit	39
Bhavanagar		1 „	12
Junagadh		1 „	12
Navanagar		1 „	12
Bickanir		1 „	12
		Total ...	411

PATIALA CLASS.

Kashmir	2	Regiments and 1 Unit Battery	66
Patiala	3	Regiments	81
Nabha	1	„	27
Kapurthala	1	„	27
Jind	1	„	27
Bahawalpur	1	„	12
Rampur	1	„	27*
		Total ...	267

The maximum number from each Corps of Division I to be :—

I. 1 Officer, 18 Assistant Instructors and trained signallers and 9 supernumeraries or beginners—total 28.

II. From each smaller unit, Division II, the maximum number to be 1 officer, 8 Assistant Instructors and trained signallers and 4 supernumeraries or beginners—total 13.

III. All signalling equipment including message books to be brought to camps, Hindustani clothes and one suit of khaki. No arms or accoutrements required.

IV. The Patiala class will probably start on October 16th, the Gwalior class October 23rd, but orders will be issued later regarding the dates units should reach Gwalior and Patiala respectively.

V. The States in which the camps are held will be asked to provide tents, transport from station to camp, camp bunniah and food-supply, also bhisties and mehters for camp.

* If 3rd squadron has been added, otherwise 12.

VI. Inspecting Officers are requested to address the Political Agents of their States with a view to finding out if the states are agreeable to send their signalling units to these classes. Inspecting Officers will also make out an approximate estimate of the cost of the railway fare for men and equipment to the above classes to enable undersigned to see what will be the cost of the classes to the Imperial Service Fund.

VII. If there is anything that Inspecting Officers want to know regarding the classes in addition to the above orders they will communicate with Major Stainforth, Officiating Inspector of Signalling, Imperial Service Troops, Naini Tal.

VIII. Nominal rolls of men attending the above classes to be sent to Major Stainforth by September 15th, 1905, to Naini Tal.
